

Worship Ministry - Living with God Above all

Worship

An act of worship, is an act that reflects the glory of Christ, and we worship because of who he is and what he is done for us. As disciples of God, we should aim to live a life of worship. Living a life is worship is a common saying, but:

What does living a life of worship means?

What does it look like?

How do we achieve this?

Life of Worship

"So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God."

- 1 corinthians 10:31

In 1 corinthians 10, Paul points out that we should do all to reflect on God's glory.

I believe that this is the way of living a life of worship, to give glory to God in all that we do.

However, giving glory to God in all that we do is easier said than done. Often times we get distracted in what is going on in life and forget to give glory to God. For instance we get distracted by school, work and even our own desires. Therefore, I believe that it is important to have a constant reminder of God being above all and practice of God being in our lives.

God in our life

Having God in our lives would mean that we will seek him and give glory to him in all that we do. For instance, we would give thanks and praises to him for all that is happening. We will seek him for his will and guidance in any season. In the sins we commit, we will seek him and repent.

In the coming year, I would like to develop worship ministry as a place where people can come to learn more about living a life of worship. I also hope that we can be reminded and challenged to place God above all by the way we live. As an extension, I would like to see members of worship ministry live out a life with God above all and be a light to others.
